THE "FATHER OF HIS COUNTRY."

Natal Day of The Man of Cherry Tree Fame Fittingly Celebrated.

MANY ENTERTAINMENTS IN HONOR

Where man the weary eye repose
When gazing on the great,
Where neither guilty glory glows,
Nor despicable state?
Yes—one—the first—the last—the best,
The Gleaner of the West,
Whom every dard not hate Bequeath'd the name of Washington
To make man blush there was but one!

Today another anniversary of Washington's birth is being celebrated, not only in your loved city of Daytona but throughout the length and breadth of the country.

Washington is incomparably the greatest name in our nation's history. In many respects he was surpassed by one and another of his fellow nation-builders. He had not the particular genius of a Hamilton or a Jefferson; he did not approach to the mental grasp and keenness of a Marshall or a Madison, and in many of our basic institutions their impress is seen clearly where there is no apparent trace of the influence of Washington. But none the less in the history of their time his figure towers majestically above them all, for it is only through him, it was only because he was all that he was that the institutions upon which they left such impress became possible of realization.

Washington's greatness was not the particular greatness of the soldier, the statesman, or the jurist; it lay in the splendid proportions of his moral stature. The real elements of his greatness are less in the glory of Yorktown than in the gloom of Valley Forge. He is a commanding figure, indeed, as the intrepid leader of the army of the nation during its long and bitter birth-struggle, but he is immeasurably grander, when with superb scorn, he spurns the offer to become the master of the people he has delivered, and lays down the sword which he might have converted into a scepter. His true greatness is reflected in his acts of long-suffering, of endurance, of self-restraint. He is greater than a world-conqueror, because he is a type of him that ruleth the spirit.

He is supremely great, because he was an idealist who to the end lived true to his ideal.

Daytona honors herself by giving many little entertainments in his honor; business in many lines is suspended, the schools are resting and celebrating; the hotels are celebrating; and are preparing special menus and all of them make much of the occasion. Many of the display windows on Beach street are strikingly made up and the familiar Washington face is displayed everywhere.

The Merchants Bank and the post-office are observing the holiday. Messrs. Conrad and Niver, of the bank, taking advantage of the holiday, spent the day in Deland.

A DELAWARE WRECK COSTS LIVES.

Excursions On Way To Witness Home-Coming Of The Battleship Fleet.

A FULL LIST OF THE DEAD.

[By United Press.]
DELMAR, Del., Feb. 22.—With coaches filled with passengers on their way to Norfolk to witness the home coming of the battleship fleet, the first section of Pennsylvania train No. 49 collided with an engine in the yards this morning. The seven dead as a result of the wreck are: J. D. McReedy, Wilmington, baggage master; Oliver Perry, Philadelphia, express messenger; W. B. Chochran, Philadelphia; J. W. Wood, Wilmington; R. M. Davis, Maryland; F. L. Wilhelm, Wilmington, mail clerk; Sophia Ashansopiles, Memphis, Tenn. was painfully injured. Princess Trixie, the educated horse, was killed. The groom, Louis Brockaway, was taken to the hospital.

ALL LIKE THE BRAND.

The men said yesterday was "fine," the ladies said the day was "perfectly charming," and the giddy young things said it was a "peachero." It was all of this and then some.

Those who were not off in their automobiles or carriages and wanted an outing were out in boats, and the Halifax presented an animated appearance with the graceful launch splashing the waves in every direction.

Commodore Burgoine invited a dozen to share the pleasure of a run down to the inlet in his splendid yacht, the "Sweetheart." They weighed anchor at 10 a. m. and faced a bracing trade wind blowing straight from the West Indies. The pure, fresh air whetted appetites to a keen edge, and when the Sweetheart made a graceful maneuver just off the Ponce Park lighthouse and ran back to "Live Oak Pt.," she dropped anchor and a toothsome repast was served to which ample justice was done.

The party was composed of F. N. Conrad, Dr. W. A. Gove, Alfred Reeves and N. Lazarick, New York; F. J. Niver, Col. C. M. Bingham, "Dad" Matthews, M. B. Aultman, L. C. Demaree, A. McF. Porter, H. C. Thompson, Dr. J. E. Rawlings and Commodore Burgoine.

The Commodore has ordered a special brand of weather for these little outings and his friends who have enjoyed the trip should see to it that he is made chief of the weather bureau for Florida.

FIRST IN WAR,
FIRST IN PEACE
AND FIRST IN THE HEARTS OF HIS COUNTRYMEN.

DISTINGUISHED NEW YORKER.

It is Daytona's pleasure and honor to entertain today William Dutcher and wife, of New York City. Mr. Dutcher is president of the National Association Audubon Societies, is an official of the Prudential Life Insurance Company, and is in close touch with the President and with Secretary Wilson on matters pertaining to bird and animal reservations and bird protection.

Mr. Dutcher has been on an inspection of game preserves from New Orleans around the gulf to the Atlantic, and is now observing conditions in this locality.

George N. Chamberlin is showing the friend of the birds around today, and they made a trip by auto to New Smyrna and went across to Ponce Park. Mr. Dutcher is very much impressed with the native attractions of Daytona, and speaks in high praise of her many charms of trees and vines and flowers; of artifice cottage homes, of lovely drives, delightful beach, etc.

ACTIVITY ON BEACH.

The Street Carnival by the Maryland Amusement Company, for the benefit of the Daytona Band, have been raising tents on the shore of the Halifax, Beach street front, today, and the small boy, the negro and the passerby have been interested spectators.

At an early hour this morning drays and transfer wagons began to unload tents, poles, lumber, trunks, boxes, tanks and various other equipment and as the activity increased the crowds of curious grew.

At the time of going to press there is a string of tents from the city building north for quite a distance and by night they will be in readiness for the public.

DR. BULL IS DEAD.

[By United Press.]
SAVANNAH, Feb. 22.—Dr. William T. Bull, famous physician and surgeon of New York, died at noon today. He was brought here five weeks ago, and his relapse came as a complete surprise, as last week he had shown marked improvement.

CAN'T FIND THE STAMPS.

Yesterday Postmaster W. C. Smith made another search for the stamps which were stolen nearly two weeks ago but without results.

After returning to Jacksonville with Sampson confessed postoffice accomplice, he informed the detectives that he had a little bottle of nitroglycerine in the remote suburbs, of his own manufacture, made by boiling down dynamite and straining it through a cloth. He said he thought he could find it for them. They wanted to try its efficacy so they took Sampson out and after a four-mile trip they found the bottle. One of the detectives bored a hole in a pine stump, according to Sampson's directions, poured the "soup" in, attached fuse with nitroglycerine cap and all hands beat a hasty retreat for shelter. It proved to be the genuine stuff; blew the stump into smithereens and the detectives carried back some splinters as evidence.

Everything so far confessed by Sampson has been verified except the Daytona robbery and the officers have sufficient evidence in the case to warrant his arrest. The postoffice inspector will swear out a warrant and the State authorities will turn him over to the custody of the United States marshal to await trial for his part as an accomplice in this work.

Interesting Subjects Discussed.

The meetings at the tent on Third avenue will continue one week longer, closing next Sunday night. Some very interesting subjects are yet to be presented. For the next few nights the subjects will be presented as follows:

Tonight—"The three Messages of Revelations 14."
Tuesday night—"God's Plan for Saving the Gospel Ministry."
Wednesday night—"The Ordinances of the Gospel."

Hankins says: WAGES TO REMAIN UP.

[By United Press.]
NEW YORK, Feb. 22.—E. H. Gary, chairman of the executive board of the U. S. Steel corporation today said there were no grounds for the reports that a declaration for open steel market would result in immediate 10 per cent. cut in wages.

BUY GREAT PROPERTY.

Messrs. John Anderson, of the Alcazar, St. Augustine, J. D. Price and Assistant Manager Smith, of The Ormond, have recently purchased Bretton Hall, Broadway and 85th street, New York; the consideration is said to be $2,000,000. The property was bought by the Anderson & Price Hotel Company, a corporation, but the above gentlemen are the principal stockholders. These great "Captains of the hotel world" have been operating Bretton Hall for years, and now take the property over entirely. This does not mean that Florida will lose any one of this distinguished trio of hotel moguls, which would be a distinctive loss to the State; on the contrary, it emphasizes the fact of their increasing strength and ability to achieve great results in their field of operations. Hosts of Floridians will be glad to note such evidence of deserved success.

A MIDWAY ROBBERY.

Last night about 10:30 o'clock as the spiritually inclined citizens of Midway were wending their steps homeward from church a man was seen to emerge from Ben Matthews' grocery store and meat market. Ben himself had been at the sanctuary, and was with those homeward-bound, so when the discovery was noted Matthews and his fellow-worshippers gave chase.

They proved to be good sprinters, and the thief being handicapped in the flight with a heavy cash box and its contents of good money, they were about to overtake him. They pressed him so closely that he had to abandon the money box, which he did in scaling a fence; after this he held his own, and was able to elude the pursuers and made good his escape.

CLARENDON MAY BE REBUILT.

A Meeting This Evening To Discuss a Matter Of Vital Interest.

AT WILMAN'S OPERA HOUSE.

This evening at 8 o'clock at Wilman's Opera House, Seabreeze, a public meeting will be held, the object of which is to talk over the question of a new Clarendon. Everyone deeply interested in the future development and prosperity of Seabreeze, Daytona Beach and Daytona should make it his business to be on hand promptly.

Everybody in the Daytona district realizes as never before the value of a great hotel in giving life and activity to this section, and on all sides the hope is expressed that a new Clarendon may arise from the ashes of the old.

The fact of its unprecedented season of prosperity; the fact of its having every available room engaged so far in advance with every indication of its having to turn away would-be guests by the hundred, perhaps thousands, makes it worth while to take initiatory steps, and speedily, looking toward a grand new Clarendon of sufficient magnitude to accommodate the multitudes who will, from year to year, want to make a stay there.

A PLEASANT LAUNCH PARTY

Mrs. J. W. Shields and H. C. Thompson jointly entertained a party of pleasure seekers aboard the latter's launch, Lucile, Saturday.

Notwithstanding the fact that the party numbered thirteen, there were no accidents nor delays—on the contrary, everything was lovely and the trip an enjoyable one. The party picnicked at Ponce Park, having their lunch on the ocean beach near the inlet.

They employed a part of their time in fishing, catching crabs, clams, etc., returning to Daytona toward evening.

THE COOPERS ARE ON THE STAND.

Robin Cooper Makes a Good Witness For Himself and May Save His Neck.

COL. COOPER TO TESTIFY NEXT

[By United Press.]
NASHVILLE, Feb. 22.—Robin Cooper on the stand today on cross examination admitted that he had called upon Governor Patterson twice on the day of the shooting and discussed with him the trouble between Cooper and Senator Carmack.

He said he could not remember any conversation on the street corner when he was alleged to have said Carmack should have been in hell long ago.

The witness swore positively that the statements made by Mrs. Eastman and Carey Folk as to the language addressed by his father to Carmack when they met was false.

He repeated the story of the shooting almost word for word.

Finding the story and examinations were not bringing the desired results and seemed strengthening to Robin Cooper's story Attorney McCann brought the testimony to a sudden close.

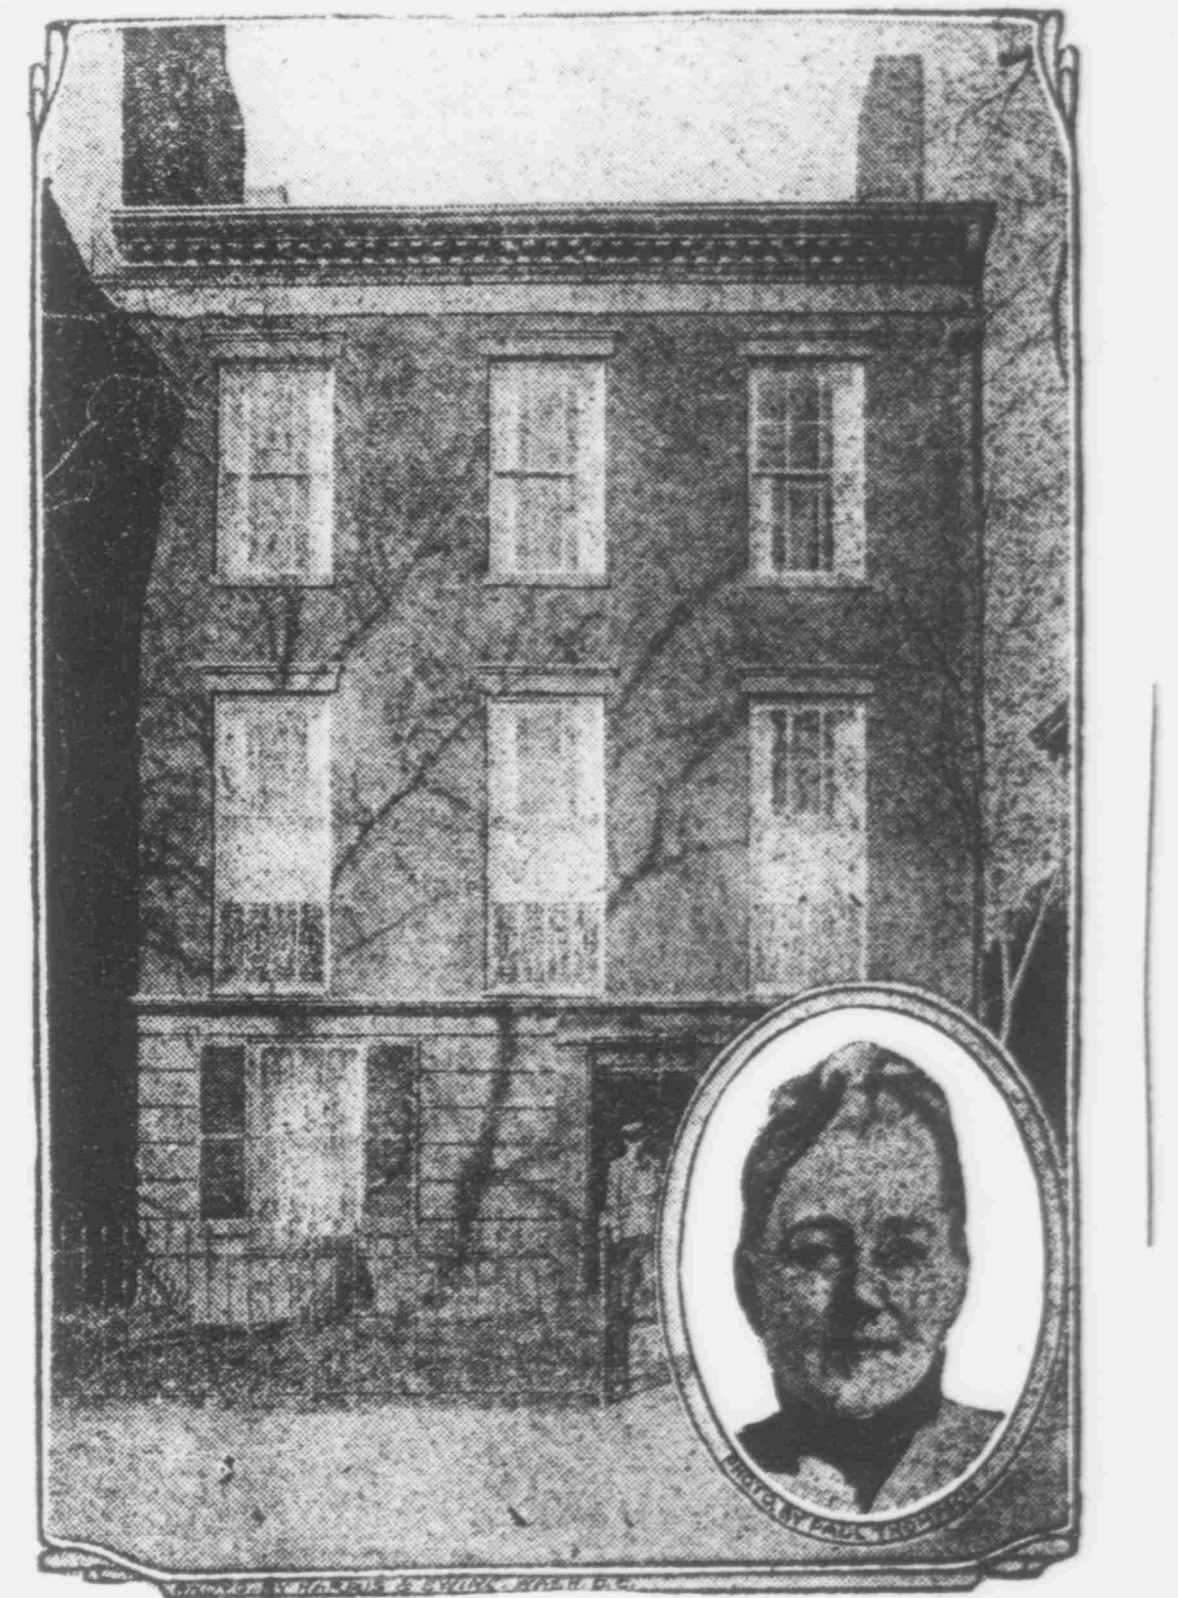

Attorney ordered redirect examination. It is expected that Col. Cooper will follow on the stand.

WELCOMES BOYS BACK.

[By United Press.]
OLD POINT COMFORT, Va., Feb. 22.—President Roosevelt made a congratulatory address of welcome to the fleet aboard the Mayflower when Admiral Sperry and fleet commanders called to pay them respects. Later when the President visited the flagship of the fleet he repeated substantially the same words to the officers and men.

President Elect Orating.

[By United Press.]
PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 22.—President elect Taft delivered an address at the Washington Birthday celebration of the University of Pennsylvania shortly before noon. Taft leaves for Washington tomorrow.

The Modern Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.
One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this little speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pellicud Halifax River.
Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy ve-randa's looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white headed pelican pugh a fat mullet, and that fish hawk stiggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.
See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.
Ridgewood avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked live-oaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with cliff draperies, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.
No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.
Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage, the entire city becomes a great park

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.
Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or eve. callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.
Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another has a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.
As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes.

The Fastest Autos And The Finest Out.

Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season.
Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells.
It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

Nero's Golden House.
The "golden house" of Nero seems from all accounts to have been the most stupendous dwelling place ever built for a mortal man. Even if we regard the ancient descriptions as somewhat exaggerated it remains one of the largest royal houses ever built, and the internal decorations seem to have been incomparably magnificent.
It was surrounded by parks, woods and pools of great size, which appear to have been entirely within the walls.
The colonnades of the house itself extended a mile in length and crossed one of the main thoroughfares of the city. The cities of the east were ransacked for masterpieces of Greek art for the interior. The walls shone with gold and pearls, and the roof rested on marble columns of enormous size and beauty.—New York American.

Not Bull Run.
The story was told of an American who happened to be crossing the ocean some years ago on the Fourth of July, which national holiday was celebrated with great enthusiasm by the Americans on board.
"I say," asked one of the Englishmen, "what is this the anniversary of anyhow? Isn't it to celebrate the battle of Bull Run or something of that kind?"
"No," promptly spoke up an American. "not Bull Run—John Bull Run."

A Friend In Need.
About half an hour had been expended by the bashful young man in a series of advances and retreats, and little Johnny's cramped position behind the sofa was becoming somewhat painful.
"I wish I dared"—the young man commenced on a new attack, when the couple were electrified by an impatient exclamation behind them: "Aw, make a break! She's dead easy!"—Brooklyn
